VOL. 46, NO. 50

Around the Square

Those things you saw moving against the sky last Saturday weren't flying saucers. They were balloons—red balloons, yellow balloons, blue balloons; balloons of every color that ever a balloon was made of—and they were let loose by the kids at the PTA "Carnival" who caught the spirit of the occasion to such a carefree extent that they probably thought what the heck, the sky's the limit.

In many ways, they were right. The party was a real bang-up, whoop-dee-do occasion. It lasted through the afternoon into the night, until 8:30 or 9 o'clock. In fact, we can't be sure exactly when it did end. In the minds of some people, it's still going on. It was that good.

So far as we are concerned, the balloons, at least, are still with us. There's something mighty gay, and challenging, about balloons. On the gay side, they remind us of circus days, when we were young and believed in everything; days when all we needed was a ticket—and a whole, new, wide wonderful world opened before our eyes in the exciting smell of sawdust and the big tents. Those tremendous, unbelievable tents, where all the best adventures were encompassed within an area large enough to house the moon.

What happened to those circus days? It used to be that the elephants, and the camels, and those bright cars of wild animals came right down your street—even when you lived in a small town. And the circus people, from another world. The beautiful women in daring, spangly costumes, riding the beautiful horses that had to be held back, prancing, tossing the red and white plumes fixed to their heads. Maybe the horses were jittery because they were as excited as the people who watched.

The challenging part of balloons is the way they act. They're independent. They don't mind adding their part to an occasion, but on the other hand they can't be trained to always jump through hoops. You can tie one to your hand, or your cap, and it'll go along with you—to a certain extent. But every now and then it will make you stop and face a few facts of life. It will remind you to observe a few simple rules concerning its true nature—or else.

In the "or else," it may drift up beyond your reach, or merely blow up in your face. Whatever its reaction, it seems quite willing to add to your happiness. It will even stand a certain amount of torture. But if you abuse it too strenuously, then it gives you what you're due.

DR. JOHN WOehler INVITED TO JOIN USC CEREMONIES

Dr. John L. Woehler, Sierra Madre dentist now retired, will participate in the ceremonies that will dedicate the new clinic building of the University of Southern California School of Dentistry tomorrow, Oct. 24. Dr. Woehler will present a demonstration clinic on practice administration.

Welch Appointed to Replace Woods in Recreation Post

The resignation of John M. Woods from Sierra Madre's Recreation Commission was accepted by the City Council last Tuesday evening. In a letter to the council, Woods explained that his position at Douglas Aircraft, where his working hours are from 4 p.m. to 12 midnight, prohibited a continuance of his activities on the commission.

After complimenting Woods with a vote of thanks for past work done, the City Council appointed Ralph Welch, who has long been known to Sierra Madreans as "Pappy" Welch, to Woods' former position.

Councilman Charles H. James proposed that the council make a statement regarding the possible construction of a new swimming pool in Sierra Madre. It was pointed out that a project has been proposed before and presented to the citizens of Sierra Madre, who turned it down by vote. Members of the council were unanimous in saying that the city would welcome any support, financial or otherwise, in backing up the present proposal.

A letter from the Garden Club was read before the council in which some of the streets of Si-

THERE WAS A LOT OF STUFFING GOING ON—and it wasn't for Thanksgiving turkeys—when some of the members of the Community Fund Committee got together last Sunday to "stuff" envelopes to be sent throughout the community in the first step of Sierra Madre's Red Feather Community Fund campaign. Those who folded, stuffed, and addressed are, from left to right: Dick Jenkins, Milt Valois, Art Morse, Hugh Warden, Bill Bodley, Dr. Allan Burgess, Emile Smith, Charles Skutt, Felix Gibian and Charles Klunk.

Open Meeting To Test Propositions

Interests and temperatures are mounting locally as the speakers list is compiled for the open meeting on Propositions 1 through 24 which the Sierra Madre Coordinating Council will sponsor Monday at 8 p.m. in the City School auditorium.

The Rev. Donald H. Ostrander, pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church, will chair the meeting and timekeepers are to be Knox Hagar and Masato Inouye, members of the Council's board of directors.

First half of the evening schedules an objective discussion of the propositions by Mrs. Herold J. Kroesche, secretary of the Pasadena League of Women Voters. An experienced speaker, Mrs. Kroesche also will conduct a question period of factual material pertaining to the propositions. Sample ballots should be brought by those who wish to follow the discussion attentively.

A fireworks debate may feature the second half of the program when five-minute talks will be given by persons representing a definite stand on the proposed issues. The speakers list, compiled so far by Council President Mrs. John E. Conzelman Jr., includes: Ralph Pinney, city school teacher, who will speak for Proposition 2 and Constitutional Amendment 24; John L. Powell, citrus association member, speaking in favor of Proposition 3; Joyce Cunningham, member of the Federation for the Repeal of the Levering Act, speaking against Propositions 5 and 6; A. Andrew Hauk, Los Angeles attorney representing the Committee Against Pension Dictators, speaking against Propositions 10, 11 and 13.

Since time allows only one speaker on each side of each issue, Mrs. Conzelman urges those wishing to be heard to contact her immediately.

GOPers Report Funds Growth in Local Club

Harold Roberts, chairman of the finance committee for the Sierra Madre Republican Club, has announced that $1900 so far has been received toward the club's goal of $2500 for Republican campaign contributions. He warns local Republicans, however, not to let this partial success go to their heads inasmuch as the completed goal has yet to be reached.

The local GOPers have been raising the campaign money through entertainments to which the public has been invited, and through letters sent through the mail. Even so, the majority of the campaign fund contributions are reported to come without personal solicitation.

The finance committee, including Col. Walter D. Thurber and Mr. Frank A. Spencer, has announced that money will be received at the local Republican Club right up to Election

Mrs. Deitz Falls, Suffers Wrist Injuries Here

Mrs. Elizabeth Stockton Dietz of 85 S. Baldwin avenue, who celebrated her 95th birthday Oct. 3, was recuperating in Sierra Madre Hospital this week from a compound fracture of the wrist.

Mrs. Deitz, one of the most active club women in this area, sustained her injury when returning Oct. 14 from a meeting of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club.

In the same hospital, suffering from a kidney ailment, is Mrs. Deitz's son, Elwood Kromer, who makes his home at the Baldwin avenue address. Also convalescing there is Thomas Jefferson Jackson, a crony of Mrs. Deitz' and runner-up to her title of youngest-in-spirit Sierra Madrean. Mr. Jackson will be 94 tomorrow (Friday).

CIVIC CLUB MEETS FOR BELLO PLAN

The next meeting of the Sierra Madre Civic Club will be tonight, Oct. 23, at 8 o'clock. With Mrs. Yvonne Hammer-schmidt as hostess, the members will gather in the home of Mrs. Virginia Pratt, 677 Canyon Crest drive.

Mrs. Pat Wilcox, president of the Civic Club, has announced that the business meeting will include an explanation of the operation of the Bello Club, by a Bello representative whose name has not yet been announced. A percentage of the profits resulting from Bello Club transactions, in which the public also may participate, will go to the Civic Club for its

SIERRA MADRE DISTRICT OF BOY SCOUTS ENLARGED

At a meeting of the Sierra Madre district of Boy Scouts last Monday evening the district's name was changed to "Mt. Wilson District." The action taken was due to the district's enlarged boundary lines, which now extend as far west as Sierra Madre Villa, northwest to Eaton wash as far as "The Barn," and as far north as Mt. Wilson. Other boundaries are contained within Sierra Madre's regular city limits.

The district committee will hold its annual meeting and Monday evening, Nov. 3, at banquet at the Woman's Club, which time there will be an election of new officers. Guest speaker will be Lee E. Harbottle, executive of the San Gabriel Valley Boy Scout Council.

Noren Eaton Returns From Hospital Visit

Noren Eaton, Sierra Madre attorney, returned last Tuesday from Huntington hospital where he underwent surgery Oct. 12. Eaton, who also is a city councilman, visited his office the same day but reports he is not putting in a full schedule for a few days.

Volunteers Needed For 'Red Feathers'

City Officials Express Thanks

City Administrator R. M. Baker and Water Superintendent Al Freeland have asked the Sierra Madre News to express their thanks to the citizens of Sierra Madre for their cooperation during the installation of water mains on Highland by the City Water Department.

MORE SPACE OFFERED BY RESIDENTS

There has been another 40 feet of land offered for sale to the city for the proposed off-street parking in the area behind Club Sixty and adjoining merchants, according to Al Morgan, chairman of the Parking Committee. This makes an area 165 by 200 feet that so far is available for purchase.

Morgan and his committee are working hard to highlight the importance of the proposed project, especially in view of the new business sections that are growing, and will continue to grow, around Sierra Madre. It has been pointed out to the City Council that unless action is soon taken to offer more parking space to shoppers, the buying public will go elsewhere to make their purchases. This fact also was one of the features in the town survey disclosed by Lorne Pratt before the Kiwanis luncheon last week. Pratt warned that the "apathy" existing here was a threat to the community.

Morgan and his committee are acting on behalf of the Civic Club, has announced that the business meeting will include an explanation of the operation of the Bello Club, by a Bello representative whose name has not yet been announced. A percentage of the profits resulting from Bello Club transactions, in which the public also may participate, will go to the Civic Club for its

ST. RITA'S SALUTES NEW SCHOOL BLDG.

An informal Open House Sunday afternoon at St. Rita's will mark the opening of the new school building, according to an announcement made this week by Father O'Malley. There will be no "fireworks" or dedicatory ceremonies, the genial priest reported; just a quiet reception for those who wish to view the school rooms and facilities. Interested members of the general public will be welcome.

Community Has Been Slow In Response to Local Campaign

The Kiwanis Community Fund Committee has been making preparations for the official launching of the Sierra Madre Red Feather Community Fund campaign on Oct. 27, but Dr. Allan Burgess, chairman of the committee, has announced that requests for volunteer workers so far have been with a poor response—with the exception of the Boy Scouts.

Tonight there will be a meeting of Sierra Madre Boy Scout leaders and members of troop committees for the purpose of organizing themselves in a plan whereby they will visit approximately 800 homes here. This amount, according to Felix Gibian, public relations chairman of the Sierra Madre district of Boy Scouts, represents about one-third the number of homes in Sierra Madre.

Members of the Red Feather committee point out that this still leaves plenty of room for more volunteers. In the meantime they have sent letters throughout the vicinity explaining that those who wish to contribute by mail will receive a receipt for their money, along with window stickers and lapel pins. The committee asks that all contributors wear their Red Feather pins and post the stickers on their windows.

It also is reported that anyone who wishes to make his donations to the Red Feather Fund without mailing may do so by going to the Bank of Sierra Madre.

Red Feather committee members who can supply further information, along with Dr. Burgess, are: Dick Jenkins, Charles Skutt, Emile Smith, Charles Klunk, Bill Bodley, Hugh Warden and his father George A. Warden, Art Morse, Knox Hagar and Milton Valois.

Eugene Field School Holds Own Carnival

Eugene Field School, in the Hastings Ranch area, will celebrate with its own "Carnival Time" this coming Saturday, Oct. 25.

Starting hour will be 2:00 p.m., according to the finance committee, Mrs. P. H. Wiborg, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Palmer, Mrs. Don Watson, Mrs. W. F. McComas, Mrs. Ward Clark and Mrs. Kenneth Smith.

During the afternoon, soft drinks, hot dogs, sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee will be

BLUE-PRINT RECREATION FACILITIES

The Recreation Commission met Thursday evening, Oct. 16, in the City Hall, to view blueprints of proposed recreation facilities for Sierra Madre. The plans are to be submitted to members of the City Council at their next regular meeting.

Members present were Al Masters, Charles James and Mrs. Stanley Coutant, with Recreation Director Philip Mitchell. It was agreed that the plans were not final, but are intended to serve as a "jumping-off place" to enlarge and make better use of existing park facilities. A suggested location for the proposed swimming pool is included.

Our Boy Makes Good, Leads Band at PTA Football Circus

Bob Brogger, who lives at 160 N. Mountain Trail, this city, and comes into the NEWS office after school each day to learn the business from the ground up, led the John Marshall Junior High School Band when it took part in the display at the Rose Bowl Saturday night.

Marshall was one of seven junior high bands which took part in the Circus and Football game which the PTA presents each year, and nearly 23,000 fans were out to cheer on their own. Also from Sierra Madre were Howard Cadot, who plays bass drum, and Larry Ballinger on the trumpet.

Localities were cheering for the East teams, Marshall and Wilson, but after a confusing series of five "quarters" with two different teams taking the field at the end of each stanza, the hardworking score keepers came up with the information that the West had outpointed

GOP Wears 'Feather in Cap' At Successful Fun(d) Fest

A near-capacity crowd of Sierra Madre Republicans enjoyed to the hilt a "five-star" Fun(d) Fe(a)st Wednesday evening at the Wistaria Vine, happy with the knowledge that nearly 100% of the donations would go to the campaign chest to help elect Eisenhower and Nixon.

This was because almost everything—talent, refreshments, music and the routine but difficult job of selling tickets, decorating the establishment and arousing enthusiasm in the community—had been contributed to the Republican cause.

Among those coming in for heartfelt thanks from the committee was Mrs. Walter Thurber, who, in the words of a committee spokesman, "did such an all-out, bang-up job of telephoning, visiting and in general making herself indispensable that we hardly know how to express our gratitude."

Others who did very special jobs and earned very special thanks from a grateful GOP committee, were Mrs. Lucia Edy, who was in charge of decorations and posters, Mrs. William Hawkins, Jr., Mrs. Baxter Jovenat, Mrs. Charles E. Morrison and Mrs. Rosa Cason.

"There were many others, besides," the committee reports. "And we don't want to feel we've left anyone out. To all those who helped, and to those whose contributions made the success of this party possible, we want to express our warmest thanks. It seems like one more demonstration of what a wonderful community Sierra Madre really is."

Hosts and hostesses who greeted the audience at the door, and escorted the distinguished GOP guests to their seats, were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Call, Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Yorba and Mr. and Mrs. William Chapman, Edgar W. Hiestand, Jr., candidate for the Congressional seat from this district, and Assemblyman Frank Lantierman attended as guests of the committee.

The GOP Choral Group sang pertinent political songs during the course of the evening, and members of the Sho-Box Theatre presented the three-act comedy-drama "Light Up The Sky," Broadway hit of a few years ago. A sophisticated, witty deflation of some typical Broadway-Hollywood types, the presentation drew many laughs from a keenly receptive audience.

An orchestra played for informal dancing at the close of the drama, and Sierra Madreans, donning their Yankee Doodle Hats ("Wear A Feather In Your Hat—For Ike and Eck and Dick and Pat") danced the light fantastic until fairly early in the morning hours. Refreshments were served throughout the latter half of the evening.

Dick Thayer headed the committee and assisting him were Mrs. Alexander Black, Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mrs. Rudolph Hartman, Jr., Mrs. Virginia Timmons, Charles Louk and Col. Charles E. Morrison.

Summing up the event, the committee concluded with a vote of thanks to the local merchants, who helped distribute tickets—and to the community at large, to whom ultimately the success of the Fun(d) Fe(a)st must be attributed.

EVERETT G. BURKHALTER, Democratic candidate for Congress in this District, was campaigning in Sierra Madre Friday and took time to appreciate the painting of Governor Stevenson which Alfred James Dewey has made. He is shown in the photograph with Mrs. Betty Keating, member of the Democratic State Committee, Mr. Dewey and Lee Shippey, from whom Mr. Burkhalter won the Democratic nomination. Shippey stated that he will vote for Burkhalter because "even as great a man as Governor Stevenson will be handicapped in carrying out his program unless he has a Congress which will support him."

MEETING YOUR NEIGHBORS IN

Hastings Ranch

KAY GATES, Custer 5-2183

Parents of Field School pupils are very busy this week preparing for the annual school carnival which will be held on the school playgrounds Saturday afternoon and evening. This year there are to be many booths for adults—a ceramic booth, a handiwork one, and numerous others—in addition to those of interest neighborhood again. The Ranks have been away for four months—a very pleasant vacation spent at their summer home in Rapid City, Illinois, on the banks of the Mississippi River, where they enjoyed renewing old friendships.

And the Kenneth Kalers of the same street recently returned from their vacation of five weeks, a wonderful trip of business and pleasure, which took them to a resort in the Black Hills of South Dakota, the lake country of Minnesota, and Mackinac Island in northern Michigan. The latter very scenic and historic spot was particularly interesting since there are no automobiles there and the only mode of transportation is that of the old horse and buggy. The remainder of their trip included Mr. Kalers' business visits in Ohio, Illinois and Indiana.

Three of our Hampton Road families, the Ed Murphys, Frank Murphys and John Murphys, spent a very enjoyable weekend in Palm Desert where they attended the beautiful costume ball at the Shadow Mountain Club—the gala celebration which opens the season at that exclusive club each year. The three families enjoyed three days of swimming and sunning in the warm desert climate and returned with varying degrees of tan, the envy of all of us who wished we could get a peak at Old Sol through our smog here.

The Charles Kenneth Smiths on Greenhill Road had a nice family reunion in their home last week, when Mr. Smith's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith from Oakland, and Mr. Smith's brother and sister-in-law, Commander R. W. Smith and Mrs. Smith, from San Diego, spent the weekend with them.

Among our new neighbors in the ranch, this week, are the Robert Smiths who have moved into 3650 Shadow Grove Road. Their daughter, Mariella, will be in the 4th grade at Field School, and their son, Bob, will join the 6th graders there. The Smiths come from San Gabriel.

Tournament of Roses Theme Will Be Music

The Tournament of Roses this year has announced to Sierra Madre and other communities that music will be the parade theme on New Year's Day. Melodies familiar to the ear of the American public will be translated into floral pictures.

Participants in the parade representing 62 cities and organizations have each chosen a different song to illustrate on a float made entirely of fresh flowers. There will be humor as well as beauty in the 1953 spectacle.

Two typical California songs by the citise of Alhambra and Inglewood will compete for the Governor's Trophy awarded to the float which best depicts the romance of California. Alhambra's theme is "I Love You, California" while Inglewood chose "California, Here I Come."

Las Vegas, Nevada, has appropriately chosen the familiar ballad "Wheel of Fortune," while South Pasadena will give the viewers a chuckle with "A Bicycle Built for Two." St. Louis, Missouri, Portland, Oregon, San Francisco, Little Rock, Arkansas, Long Beach, Glendale, San Diego, Los Angeles, Monterey Park, and Riverside are among the regular participants planning entries in conformance with the Tournament of Roses 1953 theme "Melodies in Flowers."

UNIVERSITY OF CALIF.

For local teachers University of California Extension is holding a course in Kindergarten Primary Methods, which meets Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. at Arcadia High School library, El Monte and Duarte roads, for a total of 15 consecutive sessions.

Doris Brown, formerly of the staff of the UCLA Elementary School, will conduct the course. Registration will be accepted at the meeting on Oct. 28.

We are sure they will enjoy life in our ranch, and a hearty welcome to them.

News of social activities here, this week, seems to be at a minimum. In fact, it seems that the main activity in many of our families at present seems to be fighting the colds and flu which are flying about us. However, our very active neighbors on Rim Road never let us down. They had one of their neighborly coffee sessions over there last week at Mrs. Norman Johnson's. Mrs. Max Coddington assisted Mrs. Johnson in serving the nine ladies present. Incidentally, we are happy to hear that Mrs. Arthur B. Swanson was able to attend the morning get-together, one of her first outings since her recent stay in the hospital.

Window Paint Contest Rules Announced for Halloween Fun

Here are the rules for the Halloween Window Painting Contest, sponsored by the Sierra Madre Lions Club in co-operation with the merchants of Sierra Madre and the Parent-Teacher organization. The contest will begin in the downtown area of Sierra Madre, Saturday morning, Oct. 25, at 9 o'clock.

1. All contestants must submit a color sketch at the time they receive their paints.

2. Paint colors available: Red, Yellow, Blue, Black, White, Orange, Green, Brown.

3. All contestants are to furnish their own paint brushes, rags and paint containers for as many colors as their sketch requires. (Suggestions: Milk cartons, etc.) All paint furnished FREE by the Sierra Madre Lions Club.

4. All windows will be numbered. DO NOT put your name on the window or you will be disqualified for prizes.

5. Leave a 2-inch unpainted margin around the window.

6. Contestants must remove all spilled paint from buildings and sidewalks.

7. No more than two contestants may work on any one window.

8. You may have all the outside help desired on your sketch, but no outside help on the actual painting of the window.

9. The Merchants will give every contestant a free ticket to the Sierra Madre Theater good for Saturday afternoon, Oct. 25.

10. The Merchants will also donate at least three prizes for each group:

A. Fourth Graders
B. Fifth Graders
C. Sixth Graders
D. Seventh & Eighth Graders

One Grand Prize

Members of the Lions Club and the Parent Teacher organization will supervise the business area during the time the windows are being painted. Judges in the contest will be Alfred Dewey, Mrs. Elmer Weese, and Mrs. Helen Narozny.

The Second Annual Turkey Shoot sponsored by the Arcadia Mounted Police will be held Sunday, Nov. 16, at the Police Range, Live Oak and Sixth avenue, it was announced this week.

The group will offer prizes for excellence in three types of weapons, the announcement went on. These will be 22 caliber rifles, 38 caliber pistols and shot guns, using poker hand targets and bull's eye targets for the latter.

Prizes will be given for each

Browns Are Guests At Adams Home

Commander and Mrs. Wallace M. Brown of Washington, D. C., spent several days recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Adams of 217 W. Highland.

The Browns were en route to San Diego where he will be stationed for two years, continuing work in the Engineer Corps of the Navy.

round of shooting, composed of 15 persons per round. A 12 pound turkey will be presented to the winner of each round.

Tickets are available at the offices of the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce as well as from members of the Arcadia Mounted Police.

Presbyterians Dedicate New Unit Oct. 26

The Trinity Presbyterian Church will hold a special dedicatory service for its new building at the corner of Hastings Ranch drive and Sierra Madre boulevard Sunday, Oct. 26, at 4 p.m. The event will mark the culmination of four years of planning. Built at a cost of $75,000, this first unit will be officially dedicated as a house of worship and Christian education for the entire community.

The Sherman Oaks Presbyterian Church will be represented by the Rev. Alan Cheesbro, Ph.D., who will offer the dedicatory prayer. Also, the choir from that church will furnish the special music for the occasion.

Dr. Robert Harlan of Pasadena will sing the offertory solo, the "Ninety First Psalm," by MacDermid.

The Rev. M. K. W. Heicher of the Altadena Community

A LOT OF WATER OVER THE DAM

Release valves of the San Gabriel Dam north of Azusa will be opened next Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 28. The occasion will mark the first time that water in such appreciable quantity has ever been released for storage in the county's spreading grounds.

When the operation is completed, 38,000 acre feet of water will have been released. According to Sierra Madre councilman, Lawrence Washburne, that amount represented approximately 25 times the amount used by Sierra Madre each year.

MEET AT SEWALL HOME

The Holy Family and St. Elizabeth's Guilds of Church of the Ascension met jointly last night at the home of Mrs. B. P. Sewall, 252 E. Grandview. Mrs. S. H. Sayre was speaker of the evening.

Church will deliver the dedicatory sermon.

Members of the church are inviting all persons in the community to join them on this celebrated occasion.

Third National Jamboree In Southern California in July

Throughout every city, town and hamlet in the nation this week the rallying call is "On to the Pacific," for it will bring over 50,000 Boy Scouts to Southern California next July for the Third National Jamboree.

The site of the 3,000 acre tent city is the great Irvine Ranch, one of the few old land-holdings which began in the land-grant system of the Spanish-Mexican days. One hundred and five special trains will travel 257 million boy-passenger miles from the east, middlewest and south to populate the camp which will be larger than its host city, Santa Ana. Hundreds of chartered buses will transport the boys from the Pacific Coast region.

and Explorers who can qualify for participation. Each member has had long Scouting experience and training. Several of the committee attended the 1950 Jamboree and Cleary and Harbottle are veterans of both the 1937 and 1950 Jamborees. Every Scoutmaster and Explorer Advisor in the council is being supplied this week with the detailed information for participant qualifications. Every Scout and Explorer is expected to earn his cost of transportation, tents, equipment, food and uniforms. Many boys will earn attendance by winning contests sponsored by clubs and organizations

You Save Millions with Non-Profit Schools...

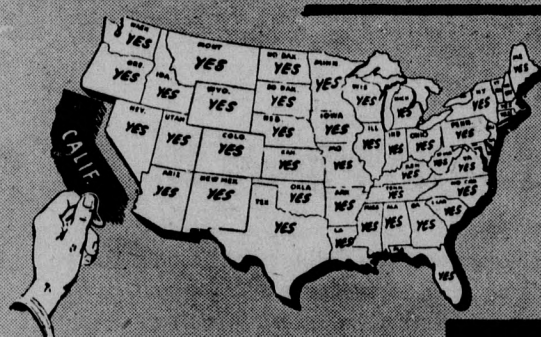

Last year alone the non-profit schools saved you $41,000,000 in school district taxes... by educating children who otherwise would have gone to tax-supported schools at your expense.

Parents of children attending these schools willingly support public schools—and will continue to do so! They ask only that a second school tax be removed from the non-profit schools they support.

OLD BELL -- NEW TOLL

Last week we ran an editorial entitled: "The People Is You." Since then, quite a number of persons have told us they read the piece because the headline caught their attention. They thought a mistake in grammar had been made. We're glad.

We are glad because we welcome anything that will help focus public attention upon the Sierra Madre Red Feather Community Fund campaign.

One of the most pleasing responses we had from last week's editorial was from a reader who asked if we were aware of the poem by John Donne which carries the same theme. We were aware. In fact, that's where we got the idea.

Another writer, Ernest Hemingway—perhaps you've heard of him—also borrowed from John Donne when he gave one of his novels the title: "For Whom the Bell Tolls." A lot of people read the book and, later, even more people saw the motion picture by the same title.

Of course we were kidding when he said "perhaps" you've heard of Hemingway. Everyone has. He's one of the greatest. And it might be that one of the reasons for his greatness is his feeling of relationship, a wisdom of life.

John Donne had it, too. He began this particular poem by pointing out that no man is an island unto himself. No man lives untouched by the actions of those around him.

When you give to the Red Feather campaign you really aren't giving. You are buying. You're buying insurance. Because you are contributing to some of the most worthwhile organizations within your community. You are helping to make possible the survival and the progression of the Boy Scout organizations, the Campfire Girls, the Community Nursery School, the Girl Scouts, the Toy Loan, Visiting Nurse, and the Y.M.C.A.

That's why the Sierra Madre Red Feather Community Fund campaign is important to you. It isn't a separate business reserved to one group, apart from you. It is for you. It comes through you. It is you!

John Donne wasn't talking about the Red Feather campaign when he wrote that poem from which Hemingway took the title of his novel, "For Whom the Bell Tolls." But he was pointing out a truth that can be to your advantage if you give it a little thought. And action. He was giving you a clue as to how you can enrich, and protect, your own life—by realizing your relationship to every man around you.

That's one reason why his poem, written many years ago, has become so famous. Because he hit upon a truth that was as solid then as it is now—as it will be ten thousand centuries from now. That's why the phrase, "For Whom the Bells Toll," still brings an understanding smile from the eyes of those who know what Donne was talking about.

We hope the people who own the copyright on Donne's poetry won't sue us if we tell you how the poem ends. We've been told by better newspaper men than we are, that John Donne died so many years ago that his works are "public domain," but at this point we are sure of only one thing: we know that Donne was writing to you when he said that any man's death "diminishes me, because I am involved in Mankind; And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; It tolls for thee."

That's how it is with the Red Feather campaign. You shouldn't have to ask to whom you are giving. You are giving to yourself.

So don't question for whom the campaign bells toll. They toll for you.

Does Anybody Here Have a
Cookie -- or a Cider Jug?

If you know of anyone who happens to have one hundred and sixty-six dozen cookies in her cookie jar, please get in touch with the Parent-Teacher Association in Sierra Madre. The local P-TA also needs thirty gallons of cider, but if you don't happen to have that much in the icebox, the Halloween Committee for the big party Friday night, Oct. 31, will be happy to receive contributions in some of that folding stuff, silver, or anything that looks like legal tender.

It's going to be a celebrated event, including moving pictures from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the City School auditorium, but it will require a lot of help from a lot of people. Known as the Halloween "Treats for Others" celebration, in which the children will gather articles for charity during their "looting" period through the neighborhood, the affair sponsored by the Sierra Madre P-TA has gained the help and cooperation of the following:

Schools: Ascension, Community Nursery School, St. Rita's, Sierra Madre Grammar.

Churches: Ascension, Baptist, Bethany, Congregational, Lutheran, Presbyterian, St. Rita's Holy Names Society.

Church organizations: Mother's Club, Ascension Parish School; St. Rita's Guild, St. Rita's Church; Women's Fellowship, Congregational Church; Mission Aid Society, Faith Lutheran Church; Missionary Society, Baptist Church; Mariners, Bethany Church.

Civic organizations: American

"The Stevenson Story"
To Be Shown Oct. 29

"The Stevenson Story," a biographical film recording high lights in the life of Gov. Adlai Stevenson will be shown at the Sierra Madre Theater Wednesday night, Oct. 29. This will be in addition to the regular program and will take less than 10 minutes. The Sierra Madre Stevenson Sparkman Club has bought out the theater for the show starting at 7 p.m., and any profits on the show will go into the local club.

"We are urging everyone to see and hear both Stevenson and Eisenhower, on television and radio, as often as possible," Mrs. James Dewey, co-chairman of the local club, said in making this announcement. "We feel everyone, regardless of party, should know as much as possible about both candidates. We cordially invite everyone to come."

asking for. Pop! Or just a drifting "Goodbye!"

In either case, we prefer the latter type: the balloon that exerts its independence merely by saying: "Okay, kid—it's been nice knowing you." We like to think that old balloons never die—they just fade away.

No doubt that's one of the reasons we were glad to be in the outdoor area of City School, at the PTA "Carnival," when the last hamburger, the last bag of popcorn, was sold—and the last booth was folded. Because the balloons were still flying. Some of the kids were still hanging around, sort of tired, sort of dreamy, but real happy—watching their strings of balloons sailing free, drifting beyond the tall trees, reaching into the black sky, disappearing against the stars.

It was a good show. Euclid would never believe it—nor would Albert Einstein, or even our old fourth-grade arithmetic teacher—but it happened in Pasadena: the East-West P-TA football game in the Rose Bowl last Saturday night had five quarters. Count 'em: five quarters.

It's not new, but it's funny, we think: Betty Conzelman, attempting to describe daughter Julie's gala weekend down from Palo Alto to attend the Stanford-UCLA game, reported that she followed up the game with a frat party at UCLA. "I don't know which frat," Betty said, straight faced. "They all sound Greek to me."

We predict they won't be a drug on the market: that's the new chlorophyll aspirin; they're for people who have stinking headaches.

EVEN JUNIOR HAD A GOOD TIME -- AT HIS OWN PARTY

The area behind City School has gone back to being a school yard, but the happy ghosts of a carnival evening still linger from the P-TA Fall Fests that was held there last Saturday afternoon and evening. It looked as if the whole town had turned out. Many were dressed in Western or Spanish costume, but after the fun began, no one seemed to care what kind of clothes were worn—just so they were.

The booth builders—Jim Dewey, Will Maloney, Leon Jenkins, son Philip, Dick James and Joe Sanchez—had done a great job. They supplied so many game booths that even Junior had a chance to edge through the crowds of parents for his share of the fun. It was supposed to be Junior's day, anyhow—and he made the most of it. He was very tolerant of the grown-ups who wore strings of balloons from their hats and rode the mechanical concessions. In fact, he went them one better. He made better scores with water pistols and darts, and when it came to balloons he tossed them toward the sky, making them sail like dirigibles. There were no half-measures for Junior.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Willis, presidents of the Sierra Madre P-TA, had worked hard with carnival chairman, Mrs. Jim Dewey, but so had dozens of others. The list of their co-workers, they said, "would stretch a mile." They also gave special thanks to Electricians Eber and Marvin Thomas, who, according to Mrs. Dewey, "strung hundreds of feet of wire for carnival lighting in some of the most impossible places."

Being a school custodian at a time like that wouldn't be easy, but Dick Pendergast, Bill Cook and John Slatnik cooperated to make it look easier than it was. Their philosophy seemed to be—"No matter what happens, keep smiling." It was Junior's day, without a doubt.

Mel Thayer cooked more hamburgers than any one man could ever eat in his life, and Lorne Pratt as emcee was much too good for an amateur. Or is he?

Of course, Lorne would be the first to point out that he had a lot of varied talent to work with—mostly children and teen-agers, but also including a few adults. The way it added up, however, in the gala occasion that turned out to be an exciting time for everybody, classifications as to ages became a matter of no importance. The entertainers were simply a group of boys and girls, ages to one side, whose names were: Robert Gaggero, on accordion; Nancy Willis, also on accordion; with Dennis Smith and his guitar; Accordionist Jean Osti teaming with George Black at piano; Fay Rosen, piano, in harmony with Bob LaLone, guitar; Nancy Slagell singing duet; music by John Dale Butah on piano; and John Dale Butah on piano; and June Rosen who combined her

Electricity is today's biggest bargain—the figures prove it!

Considering 1939 the base year, the dollar bought only forty cents worth of labor last year, forty-three cents worth of construction, or thirty cents worth of raw materials—but it bought $1.12 cents worth of industrial electric power. In your home, that dollar bought only forty-four cents worth of food, forty-nine cents worth of clothing or seventy-four cents worth of rent—but it bought $1.05 worth of electricity.

The figures are national averages released by the National Industrial Conference Board. They show that the one great exception to the upswing in prices is your electric service. In Edison territory, electric service is an even greater bargain than the national averages indicate.

"Edison electricity is your best buy—you can depend on it!"

"Whatever

Vote

YES on 2"

OUR SCHOOLS ARE IN TROUBLE! Because of the inflation, soaring birth rate, and huge out-of-State population increase since the end of the War, most school districts in California today just don't have enough money to make ends meet!

PROPOSITION 2 IS THE ANSWER. Proposition 2 gives school children and taxpayers both a break by increasing the State's share of school support—thus keeping our schools open without increasing the tax burden on homeowners.

WE ALL WANT BETTER SCHOOLS. We may differ deeply on election day over candidates and other ballot issues, but we all agree our children's educational needs must be met. That's why Democrats and Republicans, labor, business and farmers, all say: Whatever you do—

WM. B. STRINGFELLOW, JR. TAKES BRIDE IN PASADENA

Members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends attended rites on Friday, Oct. 17, joining in matrimony Mrs. Ann Rampone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shlaudemann of 630 Hillside Terrace, Pasadena, and William B. Stringfellow, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stringfellow of 497 W. Grandview, this city.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Reuel Beach of Pasadena. The bride chose a gown of brocade taffeta in a champagne shade, with which she wore brown accessories. Her flowers were orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Bernice Stringfellow, daughter of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of beige organdy, set off by her nosegay of yellow rosebuds and stephanotis.

A reception followed the ceremony. After their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Stringfellow will make their home in Pasadena, where the bride is active in the affairs of the Junior League.

SIERRA MADRE subscribers to the Foothill Community Concert Association's current artists course will hear Dorothy Warenskjold, brilliant young American lyric soprano, next Monday night, Oct. 27. The concert marks the second in the series enjoyed by music lovers from this and neighboring communities. All programs are being presented in the auditorium of Monrovia-Duarte High School.

Community Concert Oct. 27 Stars Dorothy Warenskjold

Glamorous Dorothy Warenskjold, brilliant young American lyric soprano, will be the artist for the second concert in the current Foothill Community Concert Association's artists course.

Miss Warenskjold (pronounced: Warren-shold) will appear next Monday night, Oct. 27, local subscribers to the course being reminded again—as they were at the concert—that this is a change in date from Sunday, Oct. 26. This change was necessitated because of a conflict in dates with a radio broadcast the noted young singer was asked to do. As with all Community Concert programs the event will take place in the auditorium of Monrovia-Duarte High School, just a few minutes' drive from Sierra Madre. Doors open at 7:30 p.m., with the concert scheduled at 8:15.

Miss Warenskjold is one of the brightest new stars of the American musical world. In opera, in concert and in the field of television and radio she is one of the most sought-after new personalities. Her recent successes at the San Francisco Opera and her weekly performances on television, have already consolidated her enthusiastic public.

The young singer is a California girl, born in Piedmont. All information regarding the forthcoming concert and the others to follow may be secured from Mrs. Noren Eaton, Sierra Madre chairman of the association.

Episcopal Church To Conduct Mission

An Eucharistic Mission is to be conducted at the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, corner Baldwin and Laurel avenues, the Rector, Harley Gibbs Smith, Jr. announces. The mission will begin with a solemn eucharist at 11 a.m. on Oct. 26. The special preacher will be the Rev. Kenneth R. Terry of the Order of the Holy Cross from Santa Barbara. Father Terry will also preach each evening from Oct. 26, Monday, Oct. 27 and Tuesday, Oct. 28 at 8 p.m. The evening services will also include an instruction on the "Faith of the Church." The closing devotions and procession will be on Oct. 28 at 8 p.m. A cordial welcome is extended by the rector to attend the mission.

Storkland

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Horne of 251 Rancho road are receiving congratulations on the birth of their second son and third child, Richard William, on Sept. 25. William, who joins his brother, Freddy, six, and sister, Patsy, five, is the grandson of the William Hornes of 621 Alta Vista drive.

WHITES ARE NEWCOMERS

Newcomers to Sierra Madre are Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. White, Jr., and their three children, who have moved into the former W. R. Dedrick home at 279 E. Grandview avenue. The Whites came to this city from Pasadena.

Conserso Will Hear Ballot Talk Oct. 28

Mrs. Thorleif Petterson, representing the League of Women Voters of Pasadena, will be guest speaker when the Conserso Club meets Tuesday evening, Oct. 28, at the home of Mrs. Katherine Lucas, 422 Ramona.

Members of the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church will be guests at this meeting, when the speaker will present the pros and cons of the 24 ballot measures Californians will vote on in November.

The speaker will discuss the measures in groups, and allow time for questions after each individual group is covered.

Co-hostesses at the social hour which follows will be Mrs. Olive O'Burn and Mrs. Mabel Chapman.

PLAN ARBORETUM TOUR

A tour of the Los Angeles Arboretum, Thursday, Oct. 30 at 2 p.m., is being sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of Church of the Ascension. Following the tour, tea will be served at the home of Mrs. Jack Neeley, 206 S. Old Ranch road, Arcadia, at 3.

difficult task of presenting the pro-and-con arguments for the series of 24 ballot measures on which Californians must vote Nov. 4. To make the task easier, she grouped the various measures in categories: school issues, the cross-filing conflicts, the so-called "McLain issues" and the group of insurance amendments, which, incidentally, no one has opposed as yet. At the conclusion of her discussion of each separate group Mrs. Davis paused and invited questions from the floor. Then, at the conclusion of the presentation of the entire 24, she allowed time for further questions from her listeners.

Because this was considered one of the most meaningful programs the Woman's Club has scheduled for the year, Mrs. Percy Kortkamp, program chairman, had thrown it open to the general public.

At the close of the general meeting, which began at 2 p.m., those attending were served tea. Mrs. Peter Tabahak headed the group of hostesses presiding at the tea table.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club, on Nov. 12, will begin at 11 a.m. and feature a reader, Robin Pratt. Luncheon at the clubhouse will follow the program.

BURKHALTER'S RECORD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF A MESSAGE TO VETERANS FROM VETERANS

In order to understand the problems of veterans and veterans widows and dependents one very definitely must be a veteran. One must also have made a study of veterans problems over the years since the First World War.

It is common knowledge among we veterans that Everett Burkhalter, during his years in the State Assembly has always lent a sympathetic ear to veteran groups as well as individual veterans or their widows who needed help and guidance.

Burkhalter has authored, co-authored, supported and sponsored 77 veteran bills which will always be monuments to his veteran record. Burkhalter is an enlisted Navy veteran, the only candidate for Congress from the 21st District with a military record.

MRS. EAKMAN SELLS AGAIN

Mrs. Florence Eakman, 194 Mariposa, is not only one of Sierra Madre's most outstanding poets, but she has the happy knack of selling what she writes, quite consistently. Her latest sale has been a poem to "The Instructor," a national magazine offered to public schools throughout the country. Mrs. Eakman, who also writes plays and short stories, is a regular contributor to the magazine, "Child Life."

CHILDREN FROM Coronet Homes decided to get the job started, a week ago yesterday, when the contractor for their new school didn't get around to break ground. Taking shovels in their own hands, they dug the earth themselves. In so doing, they made the first move toward actual construction of the new Don Benito School. Estimated at a cost of $368,000, the school will have ten classrooms and two kindergartens in the first units. P-TA President Mrs. Donald G. Mortensen and Richard Worden, principal, supervise the line-up from left to right: Erick Mortensen, kindergarten; Michael Thompson, first grade; Carl Cummings, second; Mary Lou Tiscornia, third; Don Warner, fourth, and Ron Maurer, fifth.

SCHOOL MENU

Week of Oct. 27 to 31

Monday—Grilled cheese sandwiches, spinach, tossed green salad, apricots, milk.

Tuesday—Spanish rice, buttered carrots, ham sandwiches, cabbage salad, Jello with custard sauce, milk.

Wednesday—Creamed chipped beef on toast, peas, cottage cheese salad, apple crisp, milk.

Thursday—Barbecued meat balls, string beans, apple and celery salad, bread and butter sandwiches, chocolate pudding, milk.

Friday—Macaroni and cheese, beets, tomato salad, deviled egg sandwich, ice cream, milk.

UPPER HASTINGS RANCH PARTY LINE...

By MARGE THOMAS, Custer 5-2951

The law of gravity still seems to be giving us poor kids along the "Party Line" trouble. Another car took off last Saturday, minus its driver, and rolled down Medford Street. Mary and Bob Rosenast's yard at the corner of Cartwright and Medford served as a "whistle stop" as the car made its landing in their neighbor's garage belonging to Pat and Irving Roswell. Fortunately, there were no children playing on the sidewalks and the damage was confined to breaking down part of the Rosenast's retaining wall, grooving their lawn a bit, and bashing in the back of the Roswell's garage. Poor Irving had just completed his current "project" of a trunk shelf in his garage and now he will never know if it would have proven to be a permanent "installation" because it, and the trunks, are on the garage floor. Those of you who have not had the experience of finding a strange vehicle sitting on your property, where the "flowers should bloom in May," can't imagine the sinking feeling that accompanies the first sight of such an occurrence. For myself, I can go all the way in sympathizing since we have had two such four-wheeled objects in our front yard.

Carolyn and Frank Williams had a supper party last weekend to honor Herb Franken of New York. Mr. Franken is on the West Coast representing his firm of Oppenheim & Franken, Inc., but decided some pleasure should be mixed with business.

FIRE FLAMES

The editor called for an early copy and when it is said that this is early in the morning, you can believe it. There is one consolation. "Early to bed, early to rise, 'til you make enough money to do otherwise." Firemen must have great dreams, wishing that away.

Your fire department members are still at it, regardless of calls of little note of late. A recent fire in the canyon area was quickly squelched and a fine piece of work declared by all who witnessed the act. The truck left the station in good time and before reaching the destination, it was being followed closely by the Hawks men and others. Immediate action took place at the fire. Before the arrival of the fire department, "Chuck" Rizzo turned in and held things down 'til the boys got to work. Chuck is a local plumber and when he takes hold of something, he does so in earnest. To him we are very grateful.

When the Chief came home from lodge the other evening, the Mrs. was a little disturbed at the late hour. "I suppose you've been holding a sick friend's hand all evening," she stated, sarcastically. "If I'd been holding his hands I'd made some money," absently spoke the Chief.

The latest drill of the men took them to the water plant with "Old Snort" the city's oldest truck. It was found that the pumps were willing to work and produce water from a pool with ease. There will always be a question as to which way Bob Heasley runs with needed fittings. Some say he runs like a deer, and others say a kangaroo would be a better picture. Charlie Brown and Vern Udell will never fully recover from the experience of losing the drill contest. Neither followed up the placing of the large hose into the reservoirs and when no water arrived at the turning of the pumps—there was much anxiety, Bob Orme yelled there was something wrong with the hose he was holding. The fact is—it was NOT in the water.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK passed without mishap. The schools and churches cooperated wonderfully by inspecting the buildings for possible fire hazards. It will be well if stores, factories and our local theater do the same in a regular manner. Remember, it is too late after tragedy has arrived.

VFW HALLOWEEN PARTY WILL BE COSTUMED NOV. 1

The VFW Post 3208 will celebrate Halloween with a costume party for members at the club, 37 E. Montecito, Saturday evening, Nov. 1.

National CYO Week Slated Oct. 19-26

National "CYO" Week began Oct. 19 and is being observed by more than six million young people across the nation, it was announced by Rev. John J. Birch, Archdiocesan director. "CYO" stands for Catholic Youth Organization. The week's program will extend through Oct. 26.

This year the theme will be "Unity . . . Sanctity . . . Action," blending all three to service of God and country.

Special activities, including rallies, open houses, forums, holy hours and entertainment programs, will mark the week at all CYO centers and settlement houses and by many CYO parochial clubs and groups here.

The CYO Federation of Young Adult Clubs began observance with a giant rally at Sons of Herman Hall, 120 E. 25th St., Los Angeles, Friday, Oct. 17, at 8:30 p.m., with 90 Southland groups participating.

"CYO Week is set aside to focus the attention of the nation on the need for sound youth programs," Father Birch said.

W. O. Ballingers Leave For Santa Barbara

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Ballinger of 264 San Gabriel court, will leave Oct. 27 to make their home in Santa Barbara, where both of them will be employed on the campus of Westmont College, 55 La Paz road, that city.

Leaving with them will be their children, Larry, 15, and Lorraine, 5, both of whom attended local schools. Larry also attended Marshall Junior High School. The entire family was active in the affairs of the Bethany Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballinger will be employed as chef and assistant chef at Westmont.

STANFORD COEDS MAKE IT REAL BIG WEEKEND

Two of Stanford's prettiest and most active co-eds returned home over last weekend to attend the Stanford-UCLA game and give the social pool a whirl before returning to Palo Alto and studies.

Julie Conzelman, daughter of the John E. Conzelman, Jr.'s of 685 Mariposa and Margot Woodworth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Philip R. Woodworth, 522 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, arrived in town Thursday night for the Big Weekend.

Margot brought along two house guests, Irene Latoff of Arlington Heights, Ill., and Diane Schoening of Piedmont, Calif.

The girls attended the Muir game Friday night and then traveled over to UCLA for the afternoon's football game— which the Alma Mater lost, 24-14. Then they all attended fraternity dances on the campus at Westwood.

Margot and her guests remained over night in Beverly Hills, as guests of another Stanford co-ed, Joan Habenfeld. They returned to Palo Alto at noon Sunday.

They weren't too downhearted at the Indians' loss to UCLA's Bruins, either—say it sounds like a good omen for a win in the biggest game of the year—the Thanksgiving weekend classic with UC.

Mrs. Wm. Underwood, Mrs. A. J. Dewey Visiting Tucson

Mrs. William J. Underwood of 770 Canyon Crest drive, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Alfred J. Dewey of 810 Canyon Crest Drive, left on Tuesday for a brief visit to Tucson, Ariz.

Mrs. Underwood will be the guest of Capt. and Mrs. H. W. Aldridge, formerly of Monrovia, and Mrs. Dewey will stay at the home of Mrs. Amanda Freeland, who made her home in Sierra Madre at one time.

'VOTE' BUTTONS GIVEN BY VFW

Two thousand "Get Out the Vote" buttons will be distributed by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post and Auxiliary of Sierra Madre. The drive was officially opened last night by Commander Walter G. Kell, Department of California, when he addressed the "Yankee Doodle Party" at the famous Wistaria Vine and the members of the V.F.W. at their local post.

The local V.F.W. campaign is a part of a coordinated statewide community service project that will distribute more than one million lapel buttons throughout California.

on sale, and all fun booths will be in operation. Dinner will be served from 5:00 o'clock on, the menu to include hot dishes, salads, desserts and drinks.

Mr. C. R. Miller and his "Dad's Committee" will be in charge of constructing booths. All rooms and character education groups will be participating. Mrs. Gordon Doyle is P.T.A. president.

This year, Don Benito School will have four concessions at Field's Carnival.

Mrs. Eldon Osborne, welfare chairman, is issuing an appeal for children's clothing in good condition, to be brought to school some time during the week of Oct. 20 through 25. This drive is in cooperation with the all-city clothing drive sponsored by the Pasadena Council of P.T.A.

Grade level meetings will be held Nov. 10, 13 and 17, according to Mrs. Phillip Saurenman, school education chairman.

Gay Nineties Atmosphere in Fund Meet

The gay Gay Nineties had nothing on Sierra Madre a week ago last night when the Wistaria Vine shook to the good old sounds of old time music, barbershop harmony and heated political discussion in the real American tradition. Sierra Madre Young Republicans planned the Old Time Voters Gala as their big part in this year's campaign, feeling that it was time people got together and made their politics fun, the way they did in the old days. The crowd that turned out for the party was a good indication that Sierra Madreans at least are still actively interested enough in their country's politics to get out and hear their neighbors' views.

The Melodiers orchestra, formerly of the old Orpheum vaudeville circuit, got everyone in fine spirit, and the old-fashioned costumes worn by the Young Republicans at the party added an authentic note, especially with the addition of Mel Thayer in his antique bathing suit. Keystone Kop Palmer Ford kept the party lively with his frequent slap-stick chases after pick-pocket Bill Hawkins.

A display of copies of the Huntington Library's famous collection of 19th century American election ballots as well as other exhibits were good material for browsing and booths manned by representatives of Democrats for Eisenhower, Sierra Madre Young Republicans and Sierra Madre Republican Club attracted many interested voters.

Vaudeville type acts were spaced throughout the evening, with Lorne Pratt mastering the ceremonies. Another Sierra Madrean, Jack Thurber, started off the evening with a wonderful rendition of "Mammy" and "California, Here I Come," in the Jolson manner. Don Parker at the Piano. Bill Mogoliner of RKO Studios proved that a little harmonica can give out with a big lot of entertainment. Unfortunately, the failure of the public address system cut the program somewhat, but Roscoe Ates, famous stuttering movie and television comedian, didn't need a mike to get a big round of applause as well as laughter from the crowd when he explained how the villains in his pictures always get away while he's trying to tell the posse that they went "th-th-th-that-a-way!" Mr. Ates introduced the speaker for the evening, Harold Townsend, formerly of the Economic Cooperation Administration and associate of Eisenhower, who told the crowd his views on the waste in government spending, with special emphasis on his experiences in Indochina.

Other guests of honor were candidate for Congress Eck Hiestand and his charming wife, Berenice, our Congressman Carl Hinshaw and Assemblyman Frank Lanterman. Guests crowded around each of these men in informal and lively discussion of the issues of the campaign.

Later in the evening the Harmon in informal and lively discussion of the issues of the campaign.

MONTGOMERY'S MOVE TO UTAH

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Montgomery and infant daughter, Joann, of 672 Brookside Lane, are leaving Sierra Madre Oct. 29. Mr. Montgomery has been hired to work for the U. S. Weather Bureau at Dugway Proving Grounds near Tooele, Utah.

ATTEND DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Thiele of 730 W. Alegria and

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Malone of 258 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. were among those from this area attending the Flying Horseman Dance Saturday night at Hacienda Country Club.

TROOP 3 SPONSORS SUCCESSFUL MOVIE

A party to kick off the new Boy Scout season brought hundreds of the friends of Sierra Madre's Troop 3 to the Congregational Church Friday night.

Known as the "Camping Troop" through the activities of Scoutmaster George Black, they provided entertainment for the large group with the showing of full color movies of the three trips made this year to Hamilton Lake, Mt. Whitney and the Grand Canyon. The Explorer troop, under the supervision of Herm Ohs, explained the locations and highlights of the trips as the films were shown.

Awards for ticket selling were won by Gary Cass, Charlie Raddon, Roger Berkshire, Richard Crook and Lee Westhafer. Although they said that they made more friends than money at the party, the committeemen and Rev. Smith of the church were more than satisfied with the income, which will be used for Scout equipment.

The children from the Plaza Home were guests of the troop.
